

Bramhall High School Geography

A level – Geography, Geology Environmental Science, (Require a grade 5 in Maths, English and Science)

BTEC
(Travel and Tourism / Travel and Aviation)

Other post 16 options – including Apprenticeships, other A level subjects, other BTEC subjects, other training, College.

Paper 1: Physical Paper 2: Human Paper 3: Geographical Applications / Skills

End of year examinations

Geographical skills

Issue
evaluation

Consolidation and revision of learning

Climate Change

Weather Hazards

YEAR 10

Tectonic Hazards

Urban issues
and challenges

U.K. glacial
landscapes

An introduction to Ecosystems

Work, Rest and Play in the U.K.

Development

Asia: China and India

Glaciation

YEAR 9

Russia and the Middle East

Tectonics

Antarctica

Africa, A Continent of Contrasts

River
landscapes

YEAR
8

Urban world

Ecosystems

Coasts

Fieldwork

Weather
and climate

Challenges facing our planet

An introduction
to Geology

An introduction to tectonics

Map skills

The geography of the British Isles

YEAR
7

What is Geography?
Human, physical and environmental geography.

* National Curriculum
Compliant

The World Around Us

YEAR
11

Ecosystems: Hot
Deserts

The Changing
Economic World

Resource management: Water

U.K. river landscapes

Resource management overview

Tropical Rainforests

Human fieldwork investigation (Ambleside)

An introduction to Ecosystems

U.K. glacial
landscapes

Urban issues
and challenges

Work, Rest and Play in the U.K.

Development

Asia: China
and India

Glaciation

YEAR 9

Russia and the Middle East

Tectonics

Antarctica

Africa, A Continent of Contrasts

River
landscapes

YEAR
8

Urban world

Ecosystems

Coasts

Fieldwork

Weather
and climate

Challenges facing our planet

An introduction
to Geology

An introduction to tectonics

Map skills

The geography of the British Isles

YEAR
7

What is Geography?
Human, physical and
environmental geography.

* National Curriculum
Compliant

The World Around Us

