

Book Review!

By Emma M Year 7

The book I am reviewing is A Good Girls Guide to Murder by Holly Jackson.

This is my favourite book because it kept me hooked and interested the whole way through. There was a lot of suspense and questions as you went through but it was so great when you find out who did it at the end. You really love the main character as she is just incredible and is digging up a murder case that everybody thought was solved.

A brief summary of the book:

An A grade student has a school project she needs to do, and she decides to do it on a murder case that happened in her very village that just doesn't sit right with her. She puts herself at huge risk, finds out many clues, and got the courage to pair up with the apparent 'murders' brother. She didn't believe it was his brother though, so they go on a journey to do everything to prove it isn't. Everyone thinks Sal Singh killed his girlfriend out of spite, but everyone knew he was the nicest boy in the town. Read the book to find out if he did it.
