

Lateral flow testing- This is asymptomatic testing carried out twice a week. If you have any symptoms you and your household should isolate & the person with symptoms go for a PCR test at a test center.

